

Lisbon Improv Classes

Building Improvised Scenes

Do you want to discover the pleasure of the unexpected? Play with joy and connect with other people? Improve your acting skills through improv?

The upcoming Lisbon Improv Classes will explore the creative possibilities of improvisational theatre. With basic exercises of mime, physical theatre, and various imagination techniques we will approach spontaneous play.

We will look to establish a foundation for our scene work. As we build our confidence on stage, we aim to inspire our partners on stage. By committing to the characters, we will learn how to build relationships through dialogue, physicality, and emotional reactions.

We will develop skills to help us find inspiration to initiate scenes and follow exciting storylines. This course focuses on scene work to help us recognise patterns and strengthen our storytelling skills. In the process, we will learn about the variety of improv short forms games.

Beginners are welcome and this course is open to all levels of theatre experience and language skills.

Open Class: Would you like to take a taster class to see if the course meets your expectations? Then you can also book just the first class for 16 €.
